How to Play

1. Each player chooses a different color. One player will create a pathway from one black dot to the other black dot and the other player from one white dot to the other white dot. Each player gets to choose where to start, at the top or bottom.
2. Player one reads a word and [illegible] square. The goal is to be the first to make a pathway across the board. Players switch back and forth reading words, coloring boxes, and making the pathway, following the rules.
3. RULES: The squares you color must share a side, not only a corner. You cannot cross the other player's pathway.
4. The first player to get to the other side wins.

YOU WILL LOVE THIS BECAUSE

Engages Students Through Play

Turn phonics into a game, making decoding and fluency practice fun and interactive for all learners.

Differentiated Word Sets

Target specific short vowels or mix them for extra challenge and cumulative practice.

Easy to Prep, Endless Replay

Multiple boards with new word arrangements mean students can play again and again without boredom.

TEACHERS LOVE IT!

"My students love using these games during stations. I also send them home for extra practice. Great variety."

Jessica G.

"Legitimately my favorite resource for tutoring and supporting students in areas where they need practice... My reluctant readers come ready to learn and beg for more!"

Audra V.

My passion is making learning accessible to all students. I love scaffolding learning, breaking down the concepts and building them up so that students can see the connections. I love figuring out the small components that build up to the big ideas and helping students see it all.
