TRICK OR TREAT KINDNESS

Halloween Bag Craftivity

TEACHER NOTES

With this fun Halloween Bag Craft is perfect to promote treats not tricks. The creativity has students reflect on how to "treat" people with kindness.

Included are:

- Cover page in three four formats, including a place for students to draw their own picture
- Turn Tricks into Treats – students choose a "trick" (thing that happens to someone) and write about how to "treat" the person.
- Treat Others with Kindness – write about three ways to treat someone with kindness
- Memories of Kindness – write about a time when someone was kind to them and write about a time when they were kind to someone else.

A time when I was treated with kindness

Treat others with kindness

A boy is always chosen last in a team game at recess.

Someone is eating by themselves at lunch.

Your friend is having a hard time figuring out his math work.

Some kids are teasing a younger kid.

A girl drops her lunch.

A classmate is having trouble reading a book.

A girl only has an apple in her lunch.

A boy is lost at the store.

Choose three tricks and write how you can turn them into a treat!
